

TURNED BANDIT RATHER THAN JOIN NEW YORK POLICE

Edwin Ware, 17, Arrested in Fresno, Cal., Tells a Wierd Tale.

FRESNO, Cal., Nov. 21.—Because he did not want to be a New York policeman, Edwin Ware, seventeen, became a bandit, he told the police following his arrest here with his pal, John Noble. He is believed to be the "midget bandit" of Fresno and Los Angeles, who had been sought for five months.

Ware claims to be the son of Lieut.
Harvey Ware, who, he said, had been on the New York force thirty years. He said he left home last February, when his father made him give up a place with a moving picture company to groom him for the police force.

The police say Ware has confessed to numerous robberies and burglaries in Central and Southern California.
In his room were found seven revolvers, 5,000 rounds of ammunition and a large amount of loot. The police suspect him of complicity in the Los Angeles mail truck robbery, in which $500,000 was stolen.

Ware asserts he served in the Canadian Navy for eighteen months and when honorably discharged was sent to a reform school on a vagrancy charge. He escaped, but was caught and sent to the Penitentiary for eighteen months. On being released he returned to New York and then went to Juarez, Mexico, where, he said, he committed his first robbery, holding up a Mexican landit.

A few weeks later he was held up, robbed and shot in Texas. He came to Fresno, where, he says, he held up the Central Garage, obtaining $50.
A week later, according to his story, he held up the Standard Oil station and obtained $60. Going to Los Angeles he held up another oil filling station of the Standard Oil Company and obtained $40 more. He held up the Bimini Baths in Los Angeles, but was arrested after obtaining $2,000 in cash. He was released on 5 years probation, but held up several pedestrians in Los Angeles and robbed a hardware store and a pawnshop there, getting $5,000 in loot.

1922 MOTOR LICENSES TO BE READY BY DEC. 1

All Autoists Must Have Them Not Later Than Jan. 1.

The State Tax Commission announced to-day that all automobile license plates for next year will be ready for distribution by December 1 and must be used on all cars in operation after December 31. No extensions will be granted after that time.

The plates will be distributed from the County Clerk's office of every county in the State except Albany, Erie and the five counties of New York City, where the distribution will take place from the branch automobile bureaus of the Tax Commission.

No renewal blanks will be sent out, all owners being required to make out their applications on original blanks. The Tax Commission warns owners that they must send their applications to the County Clerks or to the automobile bureau offices if they live in Albany or Erie county or New York. The new requirement is made necessary by the fact that automobile license plate numbers are assigned for the coming year by counties, so that the number on a plate will show the county of registration.

Applications sent to wrong offices will be returned. They may be made personally or by mail. They can be procured from County Clerks, garages and automobile organizations.

Application for dealers' plates can be made only to the offices of the automobile bureaus in Albany, Buffalo and New York.

Al Woods' Trial Set for Nov. 28.
AL H. Woods, whose production of the Demi Virgin, resulted in his arrest on a charge of presenting an indecent play, was held by Justices Herbert, Kernochan and Edwards in Special Sessions in $1,000 bail for trial Nov. 28. Wood pleaded not guilty.
